

Controls moisture, increases air circulation in exterior walls

Plastic Components' Ultra-Lath Plus[®] plastic lath is ideal for all vertical cladding with drainage.

Ultra-Lath Plus increases air circulation and provides superior moisture management in the wall. Plus, its high compressive strength prevents crimping at fastening points, eliminating blockages.

It comes in convenient plastic strips (Strip-Lath Plus™) for use as furring strips, and/or sheets and rolls for full coverage.

Safe and easy to use, and unaffected by salt, moisture and chemicals, heavy-duty Ultra-Lath Plus plastic lath is self-furred and compatible with all cement-based products.
